Committed to Early Learning

As of August 2014, 650 students are receiving high-quality early learning.

Since 2010, Network Member investments in early learning have created a societal benefit in excess of $110 million.

NOTES: 650 students are enrolled in a center or school-based program serving ages 0 – 4 (includes Pre-K). Societal benefit determined using Low Income Investment Fund Social Impact Calculator which can be accessed at http://www.liifund.org/calculator.
K – 8 Achievement

Spartanburg: Cleveland Academy of Leadership achieved the highest growth rating in their district, a growth rating that was amongst the top 15% of schools in the state.

Indianapolis: Avondale Meadows Academy is one of the top ten elementary schools in the district.

Atlanta: Drew Charter School outperformed the district and state on all state standardized assessments with an average margin of difference of 15 percentage points.

NOTES: 2012-13 academic achievement data used for analysis. Cleveland growth rating taken from South Carolina State Report Card. AMA school ranking determined using schooldigger.com rankings. Georgia’s state standardized assessment is the CRCT—5 subjects assessed in each grade 3rd – 8th.
Network Members continue to invest in programs and facilities that support families and help to bring communities together.

- Indianapolis: HealthNet at Avondale Meadows YMCA (see top left) is serving 903 patients saving the health care system $903,000 each year.

- Spartanburg: Healthy Food Hub at Harvest Park opening in a few weeks.

- $50 million in capital investment to date.
